*Students are strongly advised to connect with their academic advisor regarding semester planning and college credits at <https://yuacad.mywconline.com/>

Educational Requirements:

- YU students can meet the educational requirement mainly by:
 - (1) completing YU's online MS in Accounting (MSA) program, which is registered by the State Education Department (SED) as a licensure-qualifying program. Seniors can join BS/MSA program to have 12 credit hours counted toward both BS and MSA degrees. For more information, please visit <https://www.yu.edu/syms/grad/accounting/semester-schedule>
 - OR (2) complete 150 credit hours including 33 accounting hours and 36 business hours.
- For more information, please visit <http://www.op.nysed.gov/prof/cpa/cpalic.htm>

About the Exam:

- Each part of the CPA exam covers one of the following:
 - Auditing and attestation
 - Financial accounting and reporting
 - Regulation
 - Business environment and concepts
- Passing score for each of the four parts is 75
- Candidates must complete and pass all four parts of the CPA exam within a rolling 18-month window

CPA Eligibility

- 150 college credits qualify for CPA eligibility
- Depending on courses and credits, students may become CPA eligible and graduate with their B.S. degree at the same time
- Students must consider their CPA eligibility month and year when navigating recruitment

A Note on Leadership

- Leadership experiences are professional development experiences for aspiring accounting professionals
- Some employers, but not all, recruit for these experiences during the Spring semester
- In place of leadership, some employers may offer professional development to interns they hire

Summer Internships

- Some accounting firms recruit during Spring for Summer internships over a year out (Ex: Spring 2024 for Summer 2025)
- Students should expect recruitment for Summer internships within the first several weeks of the Fall
- Students are strongly advised to read thoroughly through position posts before applying

Accounting students are strongly advised to scheduling an advising appointment at bit.ly/YUCL for support
