

GUIDE TO MAJORS

HISTORY

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION SCAN
THE CODE

WHAT IS HISTORY?

In this major, students gain an understanding of all different aspects of the past, and will learn how to analyze, interpret, and communicate their findings. Throughout the curriculum, students engage in interdisciplinary research, analysis, and discussions which helps develop skills such as critical thinking, communication, and writing. The History major equips students with a well-rounded education and useful skills that can be applied towards a variety of careers and disciplines. With the flexibility to take elective courses outside of their major, students can add to their broader understanding and knowledge base that can be applied towards a multitude of careers.

WHAT CAN I DO WITH THE MAJOR?

Students who graduate with a degree in History have the benefit of applying their gained skills universally towards a broad range of career paths. The most popular career path for History majors is Education across functions such as teaching, library sciences, and administration. However, History majors who can successfully translate their skills and value towards specific roles may go on to work in business fields, legal professions, politics, and journalism.

The most traditional career paths for History majors are: Archivist, Curator, Author/Biographer, Museum worker, Researcher, Historian, and other related fields. Some career paths may require graduate education, such as a master's degree, which can significantly increase salary rates.

TRACKS IN THE MAJOR

For more information within History visit:

■ yu.edu/academic-advising/undergraduate-men/sheets

■ yu.edu/advising/stern-academic-advising/sheets

Yeshiva University

SHEVET GLAUBACH CENTER FOR CAREER
STRATEGY AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

SKILLS AND ABILITIES

- Analytical skills
- Critical thinking
- Deductive reasoning
- Language abilities
- Reading comprehension
- Research
- Writing

Technical

- Adobe programs:
(Acrobat, InDesign, Photoshop, Dreamweaver)
- Digital mapping software
- DiMeMa
- Gutenberg-e
- IBM SPSS Statistics
- MS Office:
(Word, PowerPoint, Excel, and SharePoint)
- PREMIS

CAREER TRACKS

History graduates develop many transferrable skills that, when honed, can be applied towards a plethora of careers:

Business/Other Careers

- Equity Research Analyst
- Financial Writer
- Human Resources Specialist
- Market Research Analyst

Common Career Paths

- Archivist (M.S. Required)
- Curator
- Designer/Content Creator
- Exhibit Designer/Content Creator
- Historian (M.S. Required)

Communications/Media

- Historical Consultant
- Marketing Professional
- PR Manager
- Writer/Editor/Journalist

Government/Social Service

- Grant Writer
- Historic Exhibit Preservationist
- Historic Site Administrator
- Nonprofit Organization
- Politician

Graduate Study Required

- History Teacher/Professor
- Lawyer
- Librarian
- Theologian/Rabbi

Employment for Historians is expected to grow by 5% from 2020 to 2030, according to the U.S. Department of Labor \(DOL\), or faster than the average for all careers.

Employment for Archivists, Curators, and Museum Workers is expected to grow by 19% from 2020 to 2030, according to the U.S. Department of Labor \(DOL\), or faster than the average for all careers.

GRADUATE AND PROFESSIONAL PROGRAMS

Many history majors choose to continue their academics towards a M.A. or PhD. As a history major it is greatly beneficial to complete a master's degree in order to gain access to a multitude of career opportunities.

Top History master's programs to consider are:

- Princeton University
- Stanford University
- Yale University

For more information please visit, bit.ly/39s188s

Graduate school is an investment you will want to research thoroughly to better understand what you can expect to get out of your degree both academically and professionally.

SALARY EXPECTATIONS

Historians

Median pay: $63,100 per year

U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, U.S. Department of Labor, Occupational Outlook Handbook, Life, Physical, and Social Science, bit.ly/2smxssV

Archivists, Curators, and Museum Workers

Median pay: $52,140 per year

Bureau of Labor Statistics, U.S. Department of Labor, Occupational Outlook Handbook, Education, Training, and Library, bit.ly/2Qzegjw

CAREER RESOURCES

- American Alliance of Museums
- American Historical Association
- Vault

NETWORKING ORGANIZATIONS

- National Council on Public History
- Organization of American Historians
- The World History Association
- YU Museum Club