

JAMES CORNWELL

jcornwell@mail.yu.edu ♦ (123) 456 7890 ♦ 12 Elm Avenue, West Orange, NJ 05620

EDUCATION

Yeshiva University, New York, NY

- Deans' Scholar; B.A. in Political Science, GPA: 3.89

January 2022

Yeshivat Netiv Aryeh, Jerusalem, Israel

- Study abroad with a focus on Talmudic Law and Philosophy

2017-2018

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Hon. John Smith, New York State Supreme Court, Judicial Intern

January 2021-Present

- Observe court proceedings; trials, oral argument of motions/appeals, settlement conferences, etc.
- Developed a working relationship with the Judge, the court clerks and administrative staff

Stephens Inc., Wealth Management Intern

May 2019-July 2019

- Reviewed million-dollar financial plans of current clients, conducted analysis and assisted in presenting wealth plans of action to them
- Prepared comprehensive financial plans for potential clients, utilizing current technology including Morningstar and Excel.
- Assisted in the recruitment of potential clients through face-to-face meetings and cold calls

LEADERSHIP AND EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

The Clarion, Yeshiva University Political Science Journal, Editor-in-Chief

2020-Present

- Supervise production of bi-annual political science journal
- Initiated the resurgence of Journal and published for the first time in over three years
- Created and introduced a new organizational structure to improve staff progression and input

J. Hecht Pre-Law Society at Yeshiva University, Board Member and Public Relations Representative

2019-2020

- Responsible for all writing, editing, design, and promotions for Society
- Developed new public relations strategies that have dramatically increased membership and participation

The Voice, High School Newspaper, Editor-in-Chief

2015-2017

- Supervised production of the monthly print school newspaper
- Managed editorial staff of 8 and general staff of over 20
- Trained staff through variety of brainstorming and information sharing sessions
- Created 8-12 newspaper pages on a regular basis using InDesign

Knock Knock Give a Sock, National High School Coordinator and Board Member

2013-2017

- Participated in non-profit organization aimed at clothing the homeless and building community
- Coordinated over 20 high school sock drives and programs for community outreach across the country

COMMUNITY SERVICE

National Conference of Synagogue Youth (NCSY), Advisor

2019-2020

- Mentor and provide individual guidance for over 40 high school students with difficulties related to relationships, academics, and familial pressure
- Help run and organize weekend retreats with over 250 high school students

The Hebrew Academy for Special Children, Direct Support Professional

Summer 2018 and August 2019

- Provided 24/7 care for children with special needs
- Worked with team of three co-counselors to provide intensive, one on one care for a bunk of four campers with both physical and mental disabilities in order to ensure their health, safety and enjoyment

ADDITIONAL SKILLS

- Computers: Morningstar; PowerPoint, Excel; InDesign
- Languages: Working knowledge of Hebrew